Wise Words

There is nothing
too little for so little a creature
as man. It is by studying little things that we attain the great art of having as little misery and
as much happiness as possible.

Dear Friend of Green Cleaning Products LLC,

It's springtime! Two weeks ago we changed our clocks. Last week we celebrated the arrival of spring. It's snowing in Colorado. This week we have "Earth Hour", a time when we turn off the lights as a way to share our support for global sustainability.

With spring, comes cleaning and clearing up our clutter. Here are a few articles full of tips ... and how to earn money and pad your wallet! Share with me your favorite spring cleaning routine.

To a Greener and Healthier Life,

Earth Hour THIS Saturday

Earth Hour 2010 is this week on Saturday, March 27th at 8:30 PM local time, wherever you are on planet earth. Earth Hour started in 2007 in Sydney, Australia when 2.2 million homes and businesses turned their lights off for one hour to make their stand against climate change. Only a year later and Earth Hour had become a global sustainability movement with more than 50 million people across 35 countries participating. Global landmarks such as the, Sydney Harbour Bridge, The CN Tower in Toronto, The Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco, and Rome's Coliseum, all stood in darkness, as symbols of hope for a cause that grows more urgent by the hour.

Spring Awakening: How to Clean and Earn

Done right, de-cluttering during spring cleaning can yield more cash than just spare change found amid the couch cushions. "We Americans are in love with our stuff, and we have way too much of it," says Gail Cunningham, a spokeswoman for the National Foundation for Credit Counseling. "If you haven't used it or worn it in a year, sell it." In addition to profiting from the sale, you may be able to cut costs to store and maintain items.
